Shadow

14th Sunday after Pentecost

Words to Ponder: "The shadow," according to American poet Robert Bly, is "the long bag that we drag behind us containing all the dark parts of ourselves that we would like to keep secret."

PRELUDE "Total Praise" Michael Turner

WORDS OF WELCOME | +PASSING OF THE PEACE Rev. Ann Hayman

CALL TO WORSHIP Elder Glenn Johnson

Christ abides in us.

And we abide in him.

Christ has the words of eternal life:

We believe and trust that he is the Holy One of God.

As we hear the gospel of peace today,

Let us choose again whom we will serve.

We will serve the God of liberation and new life,

the God who hears and answers when we call.

We bring our praises and our prayers to God,

Trusting God to meet us as we gather.

Let us worship our God together!

OPENING HYMN "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me" PH #363

CALL TO CONFESSION Elder Glenn Johnson

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving God, through Christ you abide in us, and you invite us to abide in you. But so often we are restless and unsatisfied. Instead of resting in the fullness of life Christ offers to us, we chase after money and fame, recognition and power, status and control. Instead of honoring the image of God in all our neighbors, we push others down in the pursuit of our own desires. Forgive us for forgetting that you call us to a different way of being in the world, to lives grounded in the self-giving love of Christ. Lead us out of self-interest and into communal care for one another and the world you have made. In Christ's name we pray; Amen.

Ephesians 6: 10-20

WORDS OF FAITH (Philippians 2:5–11, Book of Common Worship)

Christ Jesus,

though he was in the form of God,

did not regard equality with God

as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form

he humbled himself

and became obedient to the point of death-

even death on a cross.

Therefore, God also highly exalted him

and gave him the name that is above every name,

so that at the name of Jesus

every knee should bend,

in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

and every tongue should confess to the glory of God:

Jesus Christ is Lord! Amen.
